"America For Me," Says Oft-Deported Belgian

New York Sept. 12.—Mike Gilhooley, the Belgian-Irish boy, 14 years old, who stowed away four times to come to America, which he wants to make his home, has again been deported. He is on the transport Henderson to-day, on the return trip to Brest, but he left with the assumance to the immigration officials that he will return.

"You'll see me again." be shoute "You'll see me again." he shouted from the steamer. "T'll keep right on coming back if I have to keep up this stowaway game for the next ten years, 'cause I'm going to be an American citizen. America for me?"
